

The Journal of Kanbun Studies 8

Table of Contents

<Articles>

Three Copies of Japanese Reprints of the Shishuo xinyu bu with Marginalia Inada Atsunobu	1
The Roman Empire as Described in Poems by Intellectuals of the Bakumatsu and Restoration Period Sugishita Motoaki	19
A Study of the Compilation of the Dongying shixuan : With a Focus on Connections with Poetical Circles in the Meiji Era and Sino-Japanese Relations Kawabe Yutai	41
Exchange between Japanese and Korean Sinologists in the Modern Period and Their Influence Pak YoungMi	69

<Special Contribution>

The Distinctiveness of Japanese Kanshi: The Reception of Chinese Poetry and Japanese Lyricism Makisumi Etsuko	97
Contributors	123
Editor's Note	125

English Summaries	130
-------------------------	-----

<Articles>

Hōjō Ōsho, an Unknown Kanshi Poet of the Meiji Era: A Brief Account of His Life Wang Baoping	148(13)
Questions Concerning Character Readings in Kundoku Renditions of the Four Books: From Colloquial Character Readings to Normative Character Readings Sato Susumu	160(1)